STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

That on July 4, 2015, at approximately 2:14 p.m., Bloomington Police Sergeant Utecht was working at the Mall of America, Bloomington, Hennepin County, Minnesota, when he advised officers over the radio that a black male had been throwing things off of the upper level of the mall to the lower level. Sergeant Utecht advised that the male had just entered Foot Action. Officer Richardson responded and observed Sergeant Sassor inside the store speaking to employees. The employees informed officers that the male was in the fitting room. As officers walked toward the back of the store, the male walked toward the front. Sergeant Sassor made contact with the male, advising him that he matched the description of the male throwing things off the upper level. Sergeant Sassor attempted to identify the male, who first stated that he did not have one on him, then that he never had one, and finally refused to give Sergeant Sassor his name. Sergeant Sassor requested that Defendant removed the large backpack that he was wearing, but the male, subsequently identified as Emmanuel Deshawn Aranda (DOB: 08/23/1994) (Defendant), refused. Sergeant Sassor informed Defendant that he was under arrest and both officers attempted to place his hands behind his back. Officer Richardson grabbed Defendant's left wrist and Defendant immediately tensed up and began to pull away from officers. Officer Richardson instructed Defendant to stop resisting and place his hands behind his back, but Defendant continued to physically twist and pulled his arms back to the front of his body. Officers were able to get Defendant's hands behind his back and placed him in handcuffs. Sergeant Sassor then began check Defendant for weapons and Defendant again pulled away and began resisting. Defendant refused to walk out of the store on his own, so officers began to escort him. Defendant was then intentionally pulling from side to side and knocking things over in the store. As they got Defendant out of the store, Defendant pulled forward toward a toy kiosk and they almost crashed into it, but officers were able to pull Defendant away from the kiosk and all three went to the floor. Once on the floor, officers notified dispatch that they needed assistance. During this time, Defendant was yelling that he was being abused by the police officers and that they were beating him up. There were numerous other people around at this time. Officer King and Mall Security Officers arrived and assisted in getting Defendant to his feet, but Defendant refused to stand up. Officers eventually assisted Defendant to his feet and escorted him to the substation. At the substation, Defendant refused to cooperate with being searched or removing his backpack, so officers cut the bottom of the straps to the backpack so they could remove it without damaging the actual straps. During the search, officers located Defendant's Illinois identification card. While in a holding cell, Defendant continued to yell and kick the doors. Officer Richardson was then informed that Defendant was a suspect in a damage to property incident at Bare Minerals and Ragstock. Officer Richardson spoke with Bare Minerals employee, Mara, who positively identified Defendant as the person who walked into the store and, without saying anything, swept his hand across a display table, knocking off and breaking two containers of lip glass valued at $18.00 each and three shot glasses valued at $2.00 each. Mara reported that after he did this, Defendant walked out of the store. Officer Hayes transported Defendant to the Bloomington Police Department. He is currently in-custody.

Based on the above, your complainant states that on July 4, 2015, within the corporate limits of the City of Bloomington, Hennepin County, State of Minnesota, Emmanuel Deshawn Aranda, then and there being, did violate the above-listed provisions.
